

Shawford Station South Western Trains Consultation

South Western Railway is currently undertaking a public consultation until 22 December about changes to the timetable which may affect Shawford Station. The proposals include longer journey times for popular commuter trains and the removal of a morning service (which students might use to get to Peter Symonds).

<https://www.southwesternrailway.com/contact-and-help/timetable-consultation>

Should you wish to comment, please use the following email address:

timetable.feedback@swrailway.com.

South Western Trains will not respond to direct comments.